News Briefs

Leslie L. Bennett retired from the position of Vice-Chancellor of Academic Affairs on June 30, although he will remain on campus as Professor of Physiology Emeritus. Dr. Bennett joined the faculty of the School of Medicine at UCSF in 1942 as a member of the Department of Physiology. He was appointed Chairman of that department in 1953, and was named Morris Hertzstein Professor of Biology and Professor of Physiology in 1955. Dr. Bennett became Vice-Chancellor of Academic Affairs in 1965.

June 30 also saw the retirement of Vice Chancellor of Public Programs and Continuing Education Seymour Farber, who will continue on campus as Vice Chancellor Emeritus. Dr. Farber received his M.D. degree from Harvard University in 1939. A clinical professor of Medicine and specialist in chest diseases, he has been a member of the faculty at UCSF for over 30 years. He served as Director of Continuing Education and the Dean of University Extension for 17 years, before his appointment in 1973 to the Vice Chancellorship.

William B. Kerr has been named Director of UCSF Hospitals and Clinics effective July 1, it was announced this week by Chancellor Sooy. Mr. Kerr has been serving as Acting Director since Robert Derzon left the campus to become Administrator of the Health Care Financing Administration of HEW. Before that, Kerr served as Administrator of Inpatient Services. Before coming to UCSF in 1970, Kerr was Assistant to the Commissioner, Dept. of Hospitals, New York City, and Executive Assistant for Hospital Administration, New York City Health and Hospitals. He received his BS degree in Social Science at Loyola University, and his MA from the University of Minnesota School of Hospital Administration.

Shirley B. Chater, Ph.D. has accepted the position of Acting Academic Vice-Chancellor, until January 1, 1978, it was announced this week by Chancellor Sooy. "I am pleased to have been able to persuade her to accept this additional responsibility while the selection process for the new Vice Chancellor is being conducted for a permanent successor," declared Dr. Sooy. Dr. Chater has been Assistant Vice Chancellor for the past three years and also serves as professor of Nursing in the Department of Social and Behavioral Sciences, School of Nursing and Professor of Education, School of Education, UC-Berkeley. She received her degrees from the U of Pennsylvania, UCSF School of Nursing and her Ph.D. from UC-Berkeley School of Education.

Four title changes were announced by the Chancellor this week. Herbert W. Suelzle, Administrative Vice-Chancellor; Arthur L. Gillis, Associate Administrative Vice-Chancellor; Erick K. Erickson, Vice-Chancellor - Business and Fiscal Services; and Lucy Ann Geiselman, Dean - Continuing Education. In addition, Dr. Geiselman will assume the title of Acting Assistant Chancellor - Public Programs while a search is underway for a permanent person for this position.

The new coordinator of Volunteers for UCSF Hospitals and Clinics is Ms. Sharon Beckham, who comes to us from UC-Irvine where she was the coordinator of the volunteer service. Prior to that, she was the director of volunteer services at Cedars Sinai Hospital in Los Angeles. Ms. Beckham starts her position here on July 5.

The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation of Princeton, N.J. recently approved a $799,674 three-year grant renewal to continue the Clinical Scholars Program at Stanford and UCSF. There are 15 clinical scholars, six at UCSF and nine at Stanford.

Wallace V. Epstein, professor of Medicine and Social Medicine is the program director of the UCSF part of the program and Halsted Holman, professor of Medicine is the director of the program at Stanford. The UCSF fellows are: David Curtis, Charles Irwin, Robert Meenan, Mary-Ann Brunstetter Shafer, Budd Shenkin, and Howard Steinberg.

School of Nursing Honors:
Nursing students presented Teacher of the Year scrolls at their commencement exercises on June 18 to Ruth Barstow, assistant professor, School of Nursing; and Ellen B. Clarke, a lecturer in the school's Department of Biological Dysfunction. Two surprise awards were the Teacher of the Year Award, presented to Shirley S. Chater, assistant vice chancellor, Academic Affairs, and professor, Department of Social and Behavioral Sciences, by the Doctor of Nursing Science degree candidates; and a special thank you to Joan R. Healy, administrative analyst, School of Nursing, from the Baccalaureate Class of 1977.

School of Pharmacy Honors:
The Bowl of Hygeia was presented to Roger Gene Walker by Jere E. Goyan, dean of the School of Pharmacy during their commencement exercises on June 18. Walker was awarded the Bowl of Hygeia because he was judged as the student demonstrating the best qualities of an ideal pharmacist. Honorable mention went to Irvin Berger and Mike Nitake. Awards for excellence in teaching were presented to Donald Heyneman, professor of Parasitology and acting chairman of the Department of International Health, School of Medicine; and Luc M. Hondeghem, Assistant Professor of Pharmacology.

SFGH Briefs

The new Chief of Psychiatry Service at SFGH Medical Center is Frank A. Johnson from Syracuse, N.Y. The appointment was announced jointly by Charles E. Windsor, Executive Administrator, SFGH and deputy Director Health Care Service and Julius R. Krevans, Dean UCSF School of Medicine. Dr. Johnson will assume his new duties September 15, and will be responsible for directing the 58 bed inpatient psychiatric unit as well as outpatient services at SFGH. As Vice Chairman, UCSF Department of Psychiatry, Dr. Johnson will direct a training program in psychiatry and other mental health disciplines. He will be responsible for a newly developed Psychiatric Residency program at SFGH, with emphasis on work toward careers in the public and academic sectors.

From 1963 to the present, Dr. Johnson has served as Assistant, Associate, and Attending Psychiatrist of the State University Hospital, Upstate Medical Center, New York, where he completed his residency in Psychiatry in 1962. As Supervising Psychiatrist of Syracuse Psychiatric Hospital, he participated actively in the transition of a hospital-based academic service into a model community mental health center. He also has been Consultant Psychiatrist for the N.Y. State Department of Mental Hygiene.

Muriel Steele, Associate Clinical Professor of Surgery and Assistant Chief of Surgery has been elected Chief of the Executive Committee of the Medical Staff at SFGH. Ms. Steele succeeds Moses Grossman, Professor and Chairman of Pediatrics.

Deadline for the next issue of Today/Tomorrow which will cover the ENTIRE MONTH of August is Tuesday, July 19, 11 a.m. Please send your copy to Allen Balderson, News Services Department, 1475 4th Ave.
